Summary: A poem about grunts.

A Grunt

A Grunt

A cowardly grunt,
clad in orange and red,
born as a runt,
of the covenant.
Wielding a pistol,
but clumsy and stupid,
easily killed by a missile, the weapon does not make a warrior.
Lazy soldiers sent out to fight, only trying to live,
they fight but they die, that's all they can give.
But he or she has a life, they are individual creatures, breathing cold methane, but thinking of warm dreams, each and every one of them has a unique feature.

Even though they are not good warriors, they are loyal, friendly, and sometimes even strong, everyone thinks of them as nothing, everyone is wrong.
